

As a service to those who couldn't attend the whole program Friday, we bring you the condensed version:

Frank Roger / About getting published:

Don't tell them it's science fiction.

Zoran Živković / on the translator panel:

You can't translate nothing to something

Klaus Æ. Mogensen / The auction:

Item number 1978321. Any bids?

The politician person at the Copenhagen City Hall / The reception:

(Well, nobody remembered what she said, but there was free food!)

Danish press disappears

Martian terrorists at large?

Report from the press conference Thursday at 11AM:

10:55: Where are the GoHs?

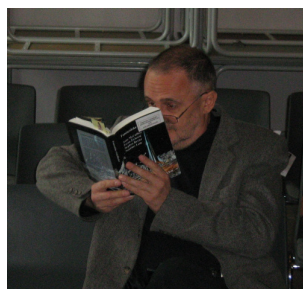

11:15: The GoHs are here, but not the press. Various theories are discussed: Are we in another dimension with no press? Martian terrorist? The GoHs decides to act as press:

A question from the press (Živković): Do I need to disguise myself to go to the masquerade? I can go as Hardy and he can go as me.

11:35: Živković gets bored of asking questions, and decides to practice his Danish:

Friday, the Eurocon 2007 chairman Olav won a flag lifting contest: It's Olav on the right.

Friday night at the con:

Dare I go?

Looks like fun.

Inspecting the bar: Do we have enough for the whole evening? Who knows, I had to go write a newsletter. (The black stuff was quite good, by the way).

Program changes for Saturday:

3rd floor 17:00: Star Wars, the 501st
The Browncoat's Hangout 12:00:
David Murphy + Ralan: book signing and 13:00: Robert Nielson + David A. Hardy: book signing.
The Wormhole 14:00: Roundtable 2
Harry Harrison (sign up for this and other roundtable sessions).
2000-2010 SF (17:00): cancelled.

Saturday night, after the ceremony:
Danish band playing music inspired by the Commodore 64 computer::

PRESS PLAY ON TAPE

